

In Conversation: Recognizing and Disrupting Systemic Racism in Social Work Practice

Webinar via Zoom • Thursday, September 3, 2020
5:30pm–7:00pm

Register here: <http://go.unc.edu/disrupt>

The National Association of Social Workers (NASW) Code of Ethics stipulates that one of the ethical principles that must guide social workers is to challenge social injustice. During this event, social workers across fields will share where and how they notice and perpetuate systemic racism and how they work to disrupt it.

While this event is highlighting social work, EVERYONE IS WELCOME to attend and participate. We all have a role in dismantling racism.

PANELISTS:

Derrick Anderson, MSW – Executive Director, Race Matters for Juvenile Justice

Alan Dettlaff, MSW, PhD – Dean, University of Houston Graduate College of School of Social Work, lead, UpEND movement

Jackie Jencks, MSW – Executive Director, Interfaith Council (IFC)

Bonita Joyce, MSW – School Social Worker

Lia Kaz, MSW – Restorative Practices Associate, Dispute Settlement Center

Rebecca Swofford, MSW – Prevention Coordinator, North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCCADV)

Sponsored by the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion and the Jordan Institute for Families, UNC School of Social Work